An Act respecting The Algoma Central and Hudson Bay Railway Company.

[Assented to 7th August, 1958.]

WHEREAS The Algoma Central and Hudson Bay Railway Company, hereinafter called "the Company", has by its petition prayed that it may be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble
1899, c.50;
1900, c.49;
1901, c.46;
1902, c.38;
1905, c.53;
1906, c.54;
1907, c.57;
1909, c.40;
1910, c.65;
1911, c.34;
1916, c.32;
1927, c.78;
1930, c.51;
1931, c.62;
1932-33, c.56.

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Railway Act or in any other Act, the Company may

R.S., c.234.

(a) issue new or additional bonds, debentures or other funded obligations to a principal amount not exceeding in the aggregate eleven million dollars at any one time outstanding;

Issue of new bonds, etc

(b) mortgage, charge or pledge all or any of the real and personal property, undertaking and rights of the Company to secure such bonds, debentures and other funded obligations or any of them;

(c) sell or pledge all or any of such bonds, debentures or other funded obligations at such prices and on such terms as the directors of the Company may deem expedient:

Provided that nothing in this section shall limit or restrict the power of the Company to borrow money on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by or on behalf of the Company or to guarantee any obligations of any subsidiary company and such powers are hereby confirmed.

Proviso.

2. The bonds, debentures and other funded obligations from time to time issued by the Company pursuant to the authority conferred by section 1 shall bear such date or

Terms and conditions of bond determined by directors.

dates, shall mature on such date or dates, shall bear such rate or rates of interest, may be secured in such manner and to such extent, and shall be subject to such terms and provisions (including any provisions deemed necessary or desirable respecting redemption, sinking fund and conversion rights) as the directors of the Company may determine at or prior to the issuance of any of such bonds, debentures or other funded obligations respectively.

Increase of capital stock.

3. (1) The authorized capital stock of the Company is increased by

(a) five hundred and seventy-nine thousand two hundred and forty-five common shares of the par value of ten dollars each, ranking equally with the four hundred and twenty thousand, seven hundred and fifty-five common shares now issued and outstanding, and

(b) two hundred and fifty thousand preferred shares of the par value of fifty dollars each.

(2) The Company may from time to time by by-law

(a) provide for the creation of classes of preferred shares with such preferences, privileges or other special rights, restrictions, conditions or limitations whether with regard to dividends, capital, the right to convert such shares into common shares or otherwise as may be declared in the by-law; and

(b) subdivide into shares of lesser par value, consolidate into shares of larger par value or re-classify any of the issued or unissued preferred shares or common shares and may amend, vary, alter or change any of the preferences, privileges, rights, restrictions, conditions or limitations attached to any of the issued or unissued preferred shares:

Proviso.

Provided that no such by-law shall be valid or acted upon until it has been sanctioned by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special general meeting of the holders of common shares of the Company duly called for considering the same and also, if such by-law affects the holders of preferred shares created by this Act and for the time being issued and outstanding, by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of such preferred shares duly called for considering the same.

Terms of
preferred
shares.

(3) The directors may by resolution prescribe, within the limits set forth in any by-law passed under subsection (2), the terms of issue and the precise preferences, privileges, rights, restrictions, conditions or limitations, whether with regard to dividends, capital or otherwise, of any class of preferred shares.

Voting rights of preferred
shareholders.

(4) Holders of any class of preferred shares shall not have any voting rights, other than those provided by by-law passed under subsection (2), nor shall they be entitled to receive any notice of or attend any meeting of the holders of common shares of the Company except the right to attend and vote at general meetings on any question directly affecting any of the rights or privileges attached to such class of preferred shares, and then there shall be one vote per share, but no change adversely affecting the rights or privileges of any class of preferred shares shall be made unless sanctioned by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special general meeting of the holders of such class of issued and outstanding preferred shares duly called for considering the same.

4. The redemption or purchase for cancellation of any fully paid preferred shares created by by-law pursuant to the provisions of this Act, in accordance with any right of redemption or purchase for cancellation reserved in favour of the Company in the provisions attaching to such preferred shares, or the redemption or purchase for cancellation of any fully paid shares of any class, not being common or ordinary shares, and in respect of which the by-laws provide for such right of redemption or purchase, in accordance with the provisions of such by-laws, shall not be deemed to be a reduction of the paid-up capital of the Company, if such redemption or purchase for cancellation is made out of the proceeds of an issue of shares made for the purpose of such redemption or purchase for cancellation, or redemption of preferred shares.

- (a) if no cumulative dividends, on the preferred shares or shares of the class in respect of which such right of redemption or purchase exists and which are so redeemed or purchased for cancellation, are in arrears; and
- (b) if such redemption or purchase for cancellation of such fully paid shares is made without impairment of the Company's capital by payments out of the ascertained net profits of the Company which have been set aside by the directors for the purpose of such redemption or of such purchase for cancellation, and if such net profits are then available for such application as liquid assets of the Company, as shown by the last audited balance sheet of the Company and after giving effect to such redemption or purchase for cancellation; and subject as aforesaid any such shares may be redeemed or purchased for cancellation by the Company on such terms and in such manner as is set forth in the provisions attaching to such shares, and the surplus resulting from such redemption or purchase for cancellation shall be designated as a capital surplus, which shall not be reduced or distributed by the Company except as provided by a subsequent Act of the Parliament of Canada.

Payment of commission.

5. The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other funded obligations or securities of the Company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company: Provided, however, that as regards shares, such commission shall not exceed ten per centum of the amount realized therefrom.

Proviso.

Retirement of presently outstanding debenture stock and bonds.

6. The proceeds of the sale of any bonds, debentures and other funded obligations (if any), preferred shares or common shares authorized by this Act shall be used and applied, in the first instance and to the extent required, in the retirement of the presently outstanding first mortgage income debenture stock and bonds of the Company and all interest, including arrears of interest, due thereon.

Retirement of existing preferred
shares.

7. Concurrently with the retirement of the said outstanding first mortgage income debenture stock and bonds of the Company and interest thereon the Company shall also retire its presently outstanding shares of preferred stock in accordance with the provisions attaching thereto.

Approval of issuance of securities,
etc.

8. Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act no further approval by the holders of shares or voting trust certificates or securities of the Company shall be required with respect to the issuance of the securities, obligations or shares authorized by this Act or the terms or provisions relating thereto.

Powers of Transport Board.
R.S., c.234.

9. Nothing in this Act shall in any way restrict the powers of the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada and all the provisions of the Railway Act now applying to the Company and its railway and undertaking not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act shall continue to apply thereto.

- (e) organize, establish, maintain and carry on libraries and houses and agencies for printing, publishing and disseminating literature, newspapers, periodicals and works of education, religion, art and science."

Power to acquire and hold property. 5. The Corporation may purchase, take, have, hold, receive, possess, retain and enjoy property, real or personal, corporeal or incorporeal, and any or every estate or interest whatsoever, given, granted, mortgaged, devised or bequeathed to it, or appropriated, purchased or acquired by it in any manner or any way whatsoever, to, for or in favour of the use and purposes of the Corporation.

Investments. 6. The Corporation may invest its funds, or any portion thereof, either directly in the name of the Corporation or indirectly in the name of trustees, in the purchase of such securities as it may deem advisable and may lend its funds or any portion thereof on any such securities.

Repeal. 7. Section 7 of chapter 82 of the statutes of 1910 is repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

Borrowing powers. "7. (1) The Corporation may, from time to time, for the purposes of the Corporation

- (a) borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation;
- (b) limit or increase the amount to be borrowed;
- (c) make, draw, accept, endorse or become party to promissory notes and bills of exchange, and every such note or bill made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by the party thereto authorized by the by-laws of the Corporation and countersigned by the proper party thereto authorized by the by-laws of the Corporation, shall be binding upon the Corporation, and shall be presumed to have been made, drawn, accepted or endorsed with proper authority until the contrary is shown, and it shall not be necessary in any case to have the seal of the Corporation affixed to any such note or bill;
- (d) issue bonds, debentures or other securities of the Corporation;
- (e) pledge or sell such bonds, debentures or other securities for such sums and at such prices as may be deemed expedient; and
- (f) mortgage, hypothecate or pledge any property of the Corporation, real or personal, present or future, by way of trust deeds or otherwise, to secure the repayment of any money borrowed for the purposes of the Corporation, or which it is obligated to pay, or the payment of which is guaranteed by it.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the Corporation to issue any note or bill payable to bearer thereof, or any promissory note intended to be circulated as money or as the note or bill of a bank or to engage in the business of banking or insurance."

8. The Corporation may guarantee, with or without security, upon such terms as it may determine, any debts of, the performance of any obligations of and the repayment of any advances made to or for the purposes of, any Roman Catholic corporation, organization, association or society engaged in activities in or partly in the Diocese of Timmins.

Power to guarantee.

9. Section 11 of chapter 82 of the statutes of 1910 is repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

"11. In the event of the decease of the Bishop of Timmins, or if he is, by reason of absence, illness, infirmity or any other cause, incapable of performing the duties of the Corporation, the person or persons duly appointed to perform his duties as Bishop, shall, pending the appointment of his successor or during such incapacity, have the powers by this Act conferred upon the Corporation."

CHAP. 56

An Act to incorporate Canadian Women's Press Club.

[Assented to 6th September, 1958.]

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter named have by their petition prayed that it be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. Madeleine Levason, Elizabeth Hammond, Helen Rogers Bahen, Simonne Daigneault, all of the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, and Patricia Stevenson, of the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, being officers of an unincorporated association known as Canadian Women's Press Club, and all other members of the said unincorporated association, together with such other persons as are or become members of the association, are hereby incorporated under the name of Canadian Women's Press Club, hereinafter called "the Association".

Incorporation.

Corporate name.

2. The objects of the Association shall be Objects.

- (a) to foster mutual sympathy, counsel and helpfulness among professional women writers and illustrators;
- (b) to promote and protect the interests of its members and to maintain and improve their status;
- (c) to promote understanding and love of Canada in publications, books, radio and television programs, plays and films;
- (d) to promote a higher standard of excellence in all types of professional writing and illustrating;
- (e) to foster in every way the spirit of goodwill between women writers and illustrators of Canada and of other countries; and
- (f) to undertake such other lawful acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

Membership.

3. The membership in the Association shall be divided into the following classes:—

- (a) active members, who shall comprise the active members of the unincorporated association and all others who are from time to time admitted to active membership under the provisions of the by-laws or rules of the Association;
- (b) associate members, who shall comprise the associate members of the unincorporated association and all others who are from time to time admitted to associate membership under the provisions of the by-laws or rules of the Association;
- (c) honorary members, who shall comprise all who are from time to time admitted to honorary membership under the provisions of the by-laws or rules of the Association; and
- (d) any other classes of members which the Association may establish by by-law from time to time.

Executive committee.

4. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by an executive committee which shall be composed of members elected or appointed as the Association may prescribe by by-law from time to time and which shall have the powers set out in the by-laws of the Association.

By-laws and regulations.

5. The Association may enact, amend and repeal by-laws and regulations for any and all purposes of the Association not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; and in particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Association shall have power to define and regulate

- (a) the terms and conditions of membership in the Association and the rights, duties and privileges of members including their voting rights;
- (b) the number, powers and duties of the officers of the Association and the constitution, powers, duties, quorum and term of office of the executive committee and all other committees of the Association;
- (c) the time and place for holding general or special meetings of the Association and the notice and other requirements thereof, except that general meetings of the Association shall be held only once in every three years unless the Association decides that they shall be held more frequently;
- (d) the amount of the fees, assessments and dues payable by the members; and
- (e) the administration and management of the business and affairs of the Association and the furthering of its objects and purposes.

6. In addition to the general powers accorded to it by law, the Association shall have power Additional powers.

- (a) to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire and otherwise acquire by gift, legacy, devise or otherwise and to own and hold any estate, property or rights, real or personal, movable or immovable, or any title or interest therein, and to sell, exchange, alienate, manage, develop, mortgage, hypothecate, lease or otherwise deal therewith as it may deem advisable for the purposes of the Association;
- (b) to borrow money for the purposes of the Association;
- (c) to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable or transferable instruments;
- (d) to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and projects calculated to benefit women writers and illustrators in any way, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable, cultural or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or any public, general or useful object;
- (e) to invest and deal with the moneys of the Association not immediately required, in such manner as may be determined from time to time; and
- (f) to do all such lawful acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Association.

7. The present officers of the unincorporated association, the members of the executive committee and of the other committees appointed under the constitution and by-laws of the unincorporated association existing prior to the enactment of this Act shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed or elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of the by-laws made thereunder. Officers and committees of unincorporated association continue to hold office.

8. The existing constitution, by-laws and rules of the unincorporated association, in so far as they are not contrary to law or to the provisions of this Act, shall be the constitution, by-laws and rules of the Association until amended or repealed at a general meeting of the Association. Constitution, by-laws, etc., of unincorporated association to continue until amended or repealed.

9. The first general meeting of the Association shall be held during the year 1959 at such time and place as the present executive committee of the unincorporated association may determine. First general meeting.

Corporation vested with rights and assumes obligations of unincorporated association.

10. The corporation created by this Act is vested with all the rights and assumes all the obligations of the former unincorporated association known as Canadian Women's Press Club.

Head office.

11. The head office of the Association shall be at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, or at such other place as the Association may determine by by-law from time to time.

CHAP. 57

An Act respecting The Board of Trade of the City of Toronto.

[Assented to 6th September, 1958.]

WHEREAS The Board of Trade of the City of Toronto, hereinafter called "the Corporation", has by its petition prayed that it be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.
1932-33, c. 68.

1. The name of the Corporation is hereby changed to "The Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto", but such change in name shall not in any way impair, alter or affect the rights or liabilities of the Corporation, nor in any way affect any suit or proceeding now pending, or judgment existing, either by, or in favour of, or against the Corporation, which, notwithstanding such change in the name of the Corporation, may be prosecuted, continued, completed and enforced as if this Act had not been passed.

Change of name.

2. (1) The words "The Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto" are hereby substituted for the words "The Board of Trade of the City of Toronto" where these words appear in sections 2, 5 and 22 of chapter 68 of the statutes of 1932-33 and in schedules "A", "B" and "C 1" thereto, and the said sections and schedules are amended accordingly.

Substitution of terms.

(2) The words "The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto" are hereby substituted for the words "the City of Toronto" where these words appear in section 4, subsection (6) of section 11 and section 16 of chapter 68 of the statutes of 1932-33, and the said sections are amended accordingly.

Repeal.

3. Subsection (4) of section 11 of chapter 68 of the statutes of 1932-33 is repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Administration of oaths.

“(4) The oath of office as aforesaid shall be administered to the president and vice-presidents of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Council of the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto, or in his absence by any member of the said Council, and to the other members of the Council of the Corporation by the president or a vice-president of the Corporation. All such oaths, duly subscribed, shall be preserved in the records of the Corporation.”

Short titles.

4. (1) This Act may be cited as The Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto Amendment Act, 1958.

(2) Chapter 68 of the statutes of 1932-33 may be cited as The Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto Act.
